

Bios of Resident Presenters and Keynote Speaker

Jordan Brazeel, PharmD with Intermountain Health St. Vincent Regional Hospital

Jordan Brazeel is a pharmacy resident who graduated from Regis University in Denver, Colorado. She grew up in Kansas City, Missouri and obtained her bachelor's degree at the University of Missouri. Her main practice interests are in emergency medicine, cardiology, and critical care. She is currently a PGY-1 Pharmacy Resident at Intermountain Health St. Vincent in Billings, MT.

Haley Brobst, PharmD with Billings Clinic

Haley grew up all over the U.S. and attended Auburn University for pharmacy school. She has a passion for helping underserved populations and her primary interest area is ambulatory care and helping patients manage chronic diseases such as diabetes, hypertension, dyslipidemia, and COPD.

Anthony Campbell, PharmD with Benefis Health System

Prior to attending Auburn University for pharmacy school, Anthony is originally from West Palm Beach, Florida. There he met his loving wife, Wardha, at their mutual alma mater, Florida Atlantic University. His practice interests include infectious disease and emergency medicine.

Keenan Douglas, PharmD with St. Peter's Health

Keenan was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan. He received his bachelor's degree in biochemistry and Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Colorado. His area of interest is in oncology.

Hadley Steele Edelmayer, PharmD with Billings Clinic

Hadley, a native of Idaho, earned a PharmD from Idaho State University. With a robust educational foundation, their professional passion revolves around emergency medicine and critical care. Dedicated to excellence in healthcare, Hadley demonstrates a commitment to addressing urgent medical needs with skill and compassion.

Andraya Hawks, PharmD with Billings Clinic

Andraya grew up in Rapid City, SD and moved to Billings, MT to complete her pre-pharmacy coursework at Rocky Mountain College. While in Billings, Andraya began working as an inpatient pharmacy technician at Billings Clinic before attending the University of Montana for pharmacy school. Her clinical pharmacy interests include emergency medicine, critical care, and cardiology.

Taylor Hopson, PharmD with St. Peter's Health

Taylor Hopson was born and raised in Billings, Montana. She attended Montana State University Billings and obtained her bachelor's degree in biology before heading to the University of Montana for pharmacy school. She has wanted to become a pharmacist since she was in high school. She has an interest in psychiatric pharmacy, but really loves the entirety of clinical pharmacy altogether.

Rebeka Jessee, PharmD with Benefis Hospital

Rebeka has a bachelor's degree from Central Washington University in Japanese and got her Pharm. D. from University of Montana Skaggs School of Pharmacy. She is currently doing her PGY1 Residency at Benefis Hospital in Great Falls. Her areas of interest are psychopharmacology and transitions of care.

Kestly Jessop, PharmD with St. Peter's Health

Kestly Jessop was born in Hamilton, MT. She completed her pre-requisite courses at Montana State University and earned her PharmD at the University of Montana. Currently, she works at St. Peter's Health in Helena as a PGY1 resident. Upon completion of PGY1, Kestly is hoping to do a PGY2 residency in critical care.

Trevor Meyer, PharmD with Fort Harrison VAMC

Trevor Meyer grew up in Boise Idaho and attended the University of Utah for his BS in Biology and PharmD degree. While in school, he became interested in psychopharmacotherapy and decided to peruse a PGY-1 within the VAMC to further his knowledge and experience in this field.

Kayla Neumiller, PharmD with MTVA Fort Harrison Medical Center

Kayla Neumiller is from Helena, MT, and received her Doctorate of Pharmacy from the University of Montana Skaggs School of Pharmacy in 2023. Kayla is completing her PGY1 residency with the Montana VA Healthcare System at Fort Harrison Medical Center in Helena, MT. Her clinical interests include cardiology, antimicrobial stewardship, and ambulatory care. Upon completion of residency, she hopes to become a board-certified clinical pharmacist and continue to provide care to Veterans with the VA Healthcare System.

William Ng, PharmD with Providence St. Patrick Hospital

Will Ng is a pharmacy resident at Providence St. Patrick Hospital. He received his PharmD from the University of Missouri- Kansas City. His interests are in emergency medicine & critical care.

Lucas Olivas, PharmD with Community Medical Center

Lucas was born and raised in Boulder, Colorado. He earned a bachelor's degree in biochemistry at the University of Colorado and continued on to pharmacy school at the University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical sciences. His practice interests include oncology, infectious disease, and ambulatory care.

Alexander Perales, PharmD with Bozeman Health

Alex is originally from Sumter, South Carolina. He attended undergrad at the University of South Carolina and graduated from pharmacy school at the Medical University of South Carolina. Practice interests for him include medication safety, emergency medicine, and infectious disease.

Cherith Smith, R.Ph., PharmD, Director of Experiential Education and Clinical Assistant Professor with the University of Montana

Cherith Smith, R.Ph., Pharm.D., Clinical Assistant Professor, serves as the Director of Experiential Education within the Skaggs School of Pharmacy at the University of Montana. Dr. Smith divides her time as a community-based and ambulatory care pharmacist at All Nations Health Center working with both IPPE and APPE students.

Katie Smith, PharmD with Billings Clinic

Katie Smith is an acute care PGY1 resident at Billings Clinic, who graduated from pharmacy school at the University of Montana. Katie gets fulfillment out of direct patient interactions, serving underserved populations, and identifying medication therapy interventions. Katie's practice area of interest is psychiatry. Katie enjoys hiking, horseback riding, and anything that involves having fun.

Teresa Sorensen, PharmD with Community Medical Center

Teresa Sorensen is a PGY1 Pharmacy Resident at Community Medical Center in Missoula, Montana. Teresa is originally from Oregon and graduated from Oregon State University College of Pharmacy with her PharmD. Her current interest areas include transitions of care and internal medicine.

Jake Turner, PharmD with Intermountain Health St. Vincent Regional Hospital

Jake is originally from Portland Oregon but currently residing in Montana with his wife Olivia. He completed his pharmacy program at Oregon State University/Oregon Health Science University while also completing his MBA. He has an interest in ambulatory care and wants to complete a PGY-2 in this field.

Madeline Ulmer, PharmD with Providence St. Patrick Hospital

Madeline Ulmer is a postgraduate year one resident pharmacist at Providence St. Patrick Hospital. She is proud to be from Helena, Montana and to have earned her PharmD from the University of Montana. Madeline is passionate about patient care and serving the communities that have fostered her growth as a professional.

Zach Van Dyke, PharmD with Saint Patrick Hospital

Zach is from Gering, NE and earned a Bachelor of Science in human biology from Chadron State College before going to pharmacy school at Creighton University in Omaha, NE. Practice interests include infectious disease, emergency medicine, and informatics.

John Voller, PharmD with Providence St. Patrick's

Jack is from Eau Claire, WI, and attended the University of Iowa for undergrad and pharmacy school. He is currently a PGY1 resident at St. Patrick's Hospital in Missoula, MT. Jack's practice interests include pain and palliative care medicine, addiction medicine, opioid stewardship, and oncology.